

Literary Archive Event 2017

Writing for Children

Saturday 25 February 2016: 9.30 – 17.00
The venue is the Lucia Windsor Room unless indicated otherwise
09.30	Morning coffee Venue – The Buttery
10.00 – 10.45	Dr Gill Sutherland: ' A child who does not feel wonder is but an inlet for apple pie. ' Fellow Emerita and former Director of Studies in History, Gill will begin with an account of Newnham's Rogers Collection and reflections of her own. She aims to offer some Aunt Sallies at which subsequent speakers can take aim.
10.45 – 11.00	Break
11.00 – 11.45	Christina Hardyment (NC 1964): Arthur Ransome's Literary Apprenticeship in Bohemian London 1900-1913
11.45 – 12.00	Break
12.00 – 12.45	Caroline Lawrence (NC 1977): Thresholds, Rewards and Altars: Three Mythic Tropes in Children's Fiction.
12.45 – 14.15	Sit down lunch – please note lunch is by pre-booked ticket only Venue – Clough Hall
14.15 – 16.00	Panel Discussion chaired by Newnham's former Literary Fund Fellow, Anne Rooney. Newnham authors Sue Limb (NC 1965), Griselda Heppel (NC 1975) and Mary Hoffman (NC 1964) will discuss their work. The debate will be opened to the floor for contributions and questions.
16.00	Closing remarks by the Principal
16.00 – 17.00	Tea and cake in the Buttery and the Library will be open with displays from our special collections of writing for children.

There will be a book sale stall running outside College Hall of the speakers' recent books. Open: 9.30-10.00, 12.30-14.15, 16.00-17.00. Please bring cash/cheque.