

Newnham Associates Summer 2020 Careers Programme A career in Law

Want to find out more about a career in Law and whether it really is like Suits?

Hear about the interesting and varied career paths of Newnhamites who've walked this path before you?

Like to ask a fellow Newnhamite those burning questions from "what's it like being in Court", "how do I become a solicitor", "how do I get experience," to "what skills are employers looking for", "how can I prepare for interview" and many more.

Come and join us to find out more!

Newnhamite undergrads and postgrads are invited to join a Law Q&A Zoom webinar on Monday 13 July at 18:00 (GMT).

To book your place, please register at: <https://www.newn.cam.ac.uk/event/associates-career-support-programme/>

	Claire is a Solicitor-Advocate who started her career in private practice working at Charles Russell (London and Geneva) and Clyde & Co, where she established a mixed commercial litigation practice. She now undertakes interim in-house legal counsel positions, which involve short to mid-term roles where specialist legal counsel is required. She is also very involved in a number of pro bono/volunteer projects. Claire read MML (French and Spanish) and lives in London.
	Indira is a freelance commercial lawyer, her most recent role being General Counsel at an international gourmet food and entertainment company. She qualified with Allen & Overy in 1992, spent 10 years in private practice (including four years with Clifford Chance) and has been in-house since 2002 working in hospitality, retail, licensing and IT sectors. Indira read Law and lives in Maidenhead.
	Sarah trained at Slaughter and May and worked at Allen & Overy in London and spent a period of time working in Asia. She joined Rothschild in 2001 becoming Global Head of Central Compliance (2014) and Head of UK Compliance (2016) supporting Rothschild businesses around the world. Sarah read History and lives in Oxfordshire.
	Umang is a qualified lawyer in Canada, having trained at Blake, Cassels and Graydon LLP in Toronto. She will be starting as a Competition Law Officer at the Competition Bureau in the Government of Canada in August. Umang read Law and lives in Toronto.
	Liz trained and worked as an Associate Solicitor at Allen & Overy, before moving to Cambridge when she initially worked freelance whilst her sons were in their pre-school years. In 1998 she was invited to join a multi-disciplinary firm providing tax, accountancy, legal, and financial planning advice which now has offices, branches and associates in the UK, France, US and Australia. Liz read Economics and Law, and lives in Cambridge.
	Astrid is a qualified lawyer and a consultant and, most recently, co-founder of music industry-oriented environmental charity EarthPercent. She previously worked at K2 Intelligence managing complex consultancy projects in the Middle East and Africa and practised as an energy, infrastructure and project finance lawyer at White & Case in London, Hong Kong and Istanbul. She has also worked in the agribusiness finance department of the Food and Agriculture Organisation of the United Nations in Rome. Astrid read MML (French and Persian) and lives in London.